

Summer Reading

6th grade Required Reading

Out of my mind by Sharon Draper

Write a one page diary entry from the main character, Melody Brooks' point of view.

Your entry should include plot elements that demonstrate understanding of the book. It should be typed in 12 inch font, double-spaced format.

All work should be complete and submitted on the first day of school. You will be tested on summer reading and projects will be assigned in September.